

OLIVER JONES
GOLF

The Perfect Buddies Trip-How to Make it Happen

The Perfect Buddies Golf Trip is one where friends can come together, compete, and meet new friends on awesome golf courses. Sadly, too many of these golf trips fall apart because of the busy schedules that everyone has. There are so many trips that are rescheduled, postponed, or scratched because one or two individuals are unable to make the time. We believe that we have found an antidote to this ailment. With our group of followers, friends, and colleagues we can find the numbers to make the trip happen. By opening the invitation to a large roster of like minded and similar ability individuals we can create awesome golf trips that don't fall apart because of a wife's birthday, child's birth, or unexpected work obligation.

Our buddies trips are top of the line and we utilize our social network to create a menu of courses that nobody wants to miss. Especially in an environment where there is plenty of action to sweeten the pot. So be on the lookout for our next golf journey and be ready to head somewhere sweet for some camaraderie, networking, amazing golf, and good times. Below are some testimonials from some gentlemen that went on our first golf journey to Bandon Dunes.